The following investigation was conducted by SA
[redacted] at Terre Haute, Indiana:

Information contained in the U.S. Penitentiary (USP), Terre Haute, Indiana records reflected that JAMES ALLEGRETTI was allowed to correspond with various members of his family including BEN POLICHERI, ALLEGRETTI's half-brother. POLICHERI is an associate of various near north side hoodlums. In addition ALLEGRETTI was denied correspondence with [redacted] MEYER's Lounge, 530 North Rush Street, Chicago, and has been considered to be a front for the north side outfit.

In addition, the records reflected that BEN POLICHERI had visited ALLEGRETTI on numerous dates, the last date being 1/12/66.

It is interesting to note that Attorney [redacted] of Suite 621, 30 North La Salle Street, Chicago, Illinois, visited ALLEGRETTI on 1/27/66. According to USA's Office, Chicago, Attorney [redacted] is presently under investigation for an IRS violation. Also accompanying [redacted] was [redacted] who was listed as an investigator.

DLL [redacted] full name is [redacted] a local Chicago bondsman who has been associated with FELIX ALDERISIO, at the First National Mortgage Company. [redacted] at one time reportedly flew the airplane located to the First National Mortgage Company. This airplane was based at Palwaukee Airport, northwest of Chicago, Illinois. [REDACTED] visited ALLEGRETTI on either October 6 or October 13, 1965, the exact date is not completely legible.

[REDACTED] Private Attorney, with offices at 3 Madison Street at Oak Park, Illinois, visited ALLEGRETTI on 11/11/65. [REDACTED] is the former AUSA in Chicago who was assigned to the Organized Crime Unit and since leaving government service, has defended hoodlums such as ROCCO INFELICE.

The records reflect that a [REDACTED] visited ALLEGRETTI with [REDACTED] on the same date. This individual is [REDACTED] who is a law partner with [REDACTED] at the present time.

ALLEGRETTI was denied correspondence to [REDACTED] Chicago, Illinois, and to [REDACTED] MEYER Lounge, 500 North Rush Street, Chicago, Illinois. Apparently ALLEGRETTI sought to obtain permission to correspond with [REDACTED] using variations in the spelling of [REDACTED] name as well as his address.

An inquiry was made by [REDACTED] Attorney at Law, 327 First National Bank Building, Peoria, Illinois, on 10/1/65 to the Warden, USP, Terre Haute, Indiana. [REDACTED] requested that the medical department of the prison furnish [REDACTED] with ALLEGRETTI's physical condition.

[redacted] On 10/6/65, the warden, [redacted] wrote to [redacted] reflecting that ALLEGRETTI is receiving from 70 to 80 units of lente insulin daily and his blood sugar has been maintained in the range of 173 to 250 milligrams per cent. In recent weeks, ALLEGRETTI's urine sugar analysis has run between a trace to two plus.

ALLEGRETTI has been unassigned as far as any working details is concerned. According to this letter, ALLEGRETTI appears to be well adjusted emotionally and physically to the present environment and his health seemingly has remained stable. ALLEGRETTI has been allowed, according to the letter, recreational activities according to his own tolerance.

ALLEGRETTI requested that a letter enclosing a letter from ALLEGRETTI together with a petition for Commutation of Sentence and rules governing petition for executive clemency be sent to [redacted] Attorney at Law, 3 Madison Street, Oak Park, Illinois. The letter with enclosures was sent on 1/28/66, by Prison Officials.

In addition to the above information, the records reflect that ALLEGRETTI was married in 1926 to HARRIET EVERLY and they had five children. Three of the children died as infants. The wife divorced him in 1936 because of late hours ALLEGRETTI was keeping due to his restaurant business and the fact that he was also a tavern owner. EVERLY kept the two children. ALLEGRETTI subsequently married FLORENCE RISNER in 1939.

Information obtained from the USP records indicated that one [redacted] address unknown, Chicago, Illinois, listed as a daughter, was approved by the prison to correspond with ALLEGRETTI. Also approved was [redacted] listed as a son living with [redacted] Melrose Park, Illinois. These may be ALLEGRETTI's children by his first wife, whom he reportedly is extremely interested in protecting, as previously reported.

JAMES ALLEGRETTI's wife, FLORENCE RISNER, died the early morning of March 7, 1966, as a result of a fire which was confined to the back bedroom and connecting hallway of her plush nine room apartment, 1300 North Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Illinois. Identification was made by BEN POLICHERI, ALLEGRETTI's half brother. Commander [redacted] Homicide and Sex Detail, Chicago Police Department, advised on 3/8/66 that RISNER's body was identified further because she had an almost perfect set of teeth and in addition, RISNER had previous surgical removal of part of the uterus and right ovary, which was also reflected in the post mortem. The extremities of the body were almost entirely consumed, including the shoulder which had previously been wired because of a shoulder separation. Other beds in the nine room apartment showed effects of numerous previous cigarette burns. The maid advised Chicago Police that RISNER had previous incidents due to smoking in bed. There is no indication of foul play; however, Commander [redacted] stated the toxicologists examination would not be complete for about one week.
